

CARDIOLOGY ASSOCIATES OF TEXAS

6860 North Dallas Pkwy, Ste 200, Plano TX 75024

Tel: 469-305-7171 Fax: 469-212-1548

Patient Name: William Green
Patient DOB: 11-30-1950
Patient Sex: Male
Date of Service: 03-04-2016

Lower Extremity Venous Duplex Final Report

Tape No: 1020 Tech: Angela

Vital Signs

Height is 65 in, Weight is 190 lbs and BMI is 32
BP Systolic is 150 mmHg, BP Diastolic is 100 mmHg and O2 Sat is 98 %

Procedure:

A two dimensional bilateral lower extremity duplex exam was performed taking high resolution ultrasound study of the lower extremities. Color flow and doppler was performed. Patient was in supine position with the chin pointed upwards.

Clinical Indications

Pain in lower extremities

Right

Common Femoral: augmented.
Superficial Femoral: compressed.
Popliteal: compressed.
Posterior Tibial: augmented.

Left

Common Femoral: augmented.
Superficial Femoral: compressed.
Popliteal: compressed.
Posterior Tibial: augmented.

Conclusions

Compressibility
Normal compressibility.

Waveforms
Normal

Augmentation
Normal augmentation

Impression/Conclusion
No evidence of deep venous thrombosis in the lower extremities.

The visit was electronically signed off by Steven Smith, MD on 03/08/2016 04:13:11 PM