

SWAN UROLOGY ASSOCIATES OF TEXAS

6860 North Dallas Pkwy, Ste 200, Plano, TX 75024

Tel: 469-305-7171 Fax: 469-212-1548

Patient Name: Alice Samuels

Patient DOB: 06-15-1951

Patient Sex: Female

Visit Date: 03-05-2016

Transrectal Ultrasound of the prostate

Indication: High PSA

Prep: Complete

Anesthesia: 1 % Lidocaine 10 cc

Antibiotic: Cipro

Operative Description: The patient was placed in the left lateral decubitus position. A DRE was done to confirm a complete prep. The bilinear transrectal ultrasound probe was placed in the rectum. Imaging in the transverse and longitudinal planes was obtained. The findings are as follows.

Findings

Size: 1 cc

Median Lobe: Yes

Other

Vas Deferens is normal. Seminal Vesicle is normal. Bladder no significant findings. Ejaculatory Duct normal.

Parenchyma

Homogenous

Calcification

No stone

No cyst

Not stippled

Capsule

Intact

Grossly Invaded

RTO: 10 Days

Patient agrees to call the office should they develop bleeding which they feel is excessive, fever over 100.5, chills or difficulty voiding. This is not the exclusion of other matters discussed post treatment care.

This visit was electronically signed off by Steven Tillem, MD on 03/05/2016 08:45:06 PM